

Huron Elects Former Academic Medical Center Executive Peter Markell to Board of Directors

March 16, 2022

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 16, 2022-- Global professional services firm Huron (NASDAQ: HURN) today announced that Peter Markell was elected to Huron's board of directors. Peter's addition brings the size of the board to seven members.

"We are pleased to welcome Peter to Huron's board of directors. His extensive knowledge of Huron's core industries and the challenges clients in those industries face along with his deep financial acumen will enable him to have an immediate impact on the achievement of Huron's strategic and financial objectives," said John McCartney, non-executive chairman of the Huron board.

Mr. Markell previously served as executive vice president of administration and finance, and chief financial officer and treasurer at Mass General Brigham where he was responsible for financial oversight of $14 billion in operations with assets of approximately $21 billion. He also managed teams within the areas of corporate finance, research management, information systems, real estate, treasury and human resources. Mr. Markell also recently completed his term as chairman of the board of trustees of Boston College, concluding 18 years of service on the board. Prior to his executive roles at Mass General Brigham, Mr. Markell was an audit partner at EY and served as interim chief financial officer at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Mr. Markell is a certified public accountant (CPA) and holds a bachelor of science with concentrations in accounting and finance from Boston College. Mr. Markell also sits on the board of Eastern Bank. He will qualify as an audit committee financial expert.

"As we continue to evolve our board, we are focused on having the best mix of skills and experience to evaluate and support the Company's strategy going forward. Peter's recent experience as a senior leader and board member in healthcare and higher education, respectively, which represent Huron's two largest end markets, will further amplify the vitally important 'voice of the client' in our boardroom discussions. We recognize the benefits of fresh perspectives that highly qualified new directors can bring to our board, and we remain actively engaged in our board refreshment process and our commitment to increased diversity. We expect to add at least one additional new director in the coming quarters," added McCartney.

Statements in this press release that are not historical in nature, including those concerning the Company's current expectations about its future results, are "forward-looking" statements as defined in Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are identified by words such as "may," "should," "expects," "provides," "anticipates," "assumes," "can," "will," "meets," "could," "likely," "intends," "might," "predicts," "seeks," "would," "believes," "estimates," "plans," "continues," "guidance," or "outlook" or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements reflect the Company's current expectations about future requirements and needs, results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements. Some of the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward looking statements contained herein include, without limitation: the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the economy, our clients and client demand for our services, and our ability to sell and provide services, including the measures taken by governmental authorities and businesses in response to the pandemic, which may cause or contribute to other risks and uncertainties that we face; failure to achieve expected utilization rates, billing rates and the number of revenue-generating professionals; inability to expand or adjust our service offerings in response to market demands; our dependence on renewal of client-based services; dependence on new business and retention of current clients and qualified personnel; failure to maintain third-party provider relationships and strategic alliances; inability to license technology to and from third parties; the impairment of goodwill; various factors related to income and other taxes; difficulties in successfully integrating the businesses we acquire and achieving expected benefits from such acquisitions; risks relating to privacy, information security, and related laws and standards; and a general downturn in market conditions. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, including, among others, those described under "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in Huron's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021, that may cause actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from any anticipated results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. The Company disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information or future events, or for any other reason.
