Huron Recognized as a 2025 ‘Best Place to Work for LGBTQ+ Equality’

January 15, 2025

Achieved perfect 100 rating in the Human Rights Campaign Foundation’s assessment of LGBTQ+ workplace inclusion and equality

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 15, 2025-- Global professional services firm Huron (NASDAQ: HURN) has been named a “Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality” by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) Foundation for the tenth consecutive year. Huron earned a perfect score of 100 on the HRC Foundation’s 2025 Corporate Equality Index (CEI), a national benchmarking tool that evaluates employers on corporate policies, culture and social responsibility initiatives, equal employment opportunities and benefits.

“At Huron, we know that diverse perspectives, authentic voices, and deep connections make us stronger as an organization and as individuals,” said Kristen Bruner, chief human resources officer of Huron. “We are committed to creating a vibrant, global community where everyone feels seen, heard, valued, and empowered to bring their whole selves to work. This recognition is a true testament to our incredible team, who champions inclusion, equality, and belonging every day.”

The CEI is the nation’s premier benchmarking survey for LGBTQ+ workplace equality, assessing employers on key areas such as nondiscrimination policies, equitable benefits for LGBTQ+ employees and their families, and efforts to build and support inclusive workplace cultures and corporate social responsibility. The 2025 CEI highlights the progress U.S.-based companies are making to advance LGBTQ+ equality both domestically and internationally. Huron joins 765 companies earning perfect scores this year. This year’s CEI includes participation from 1,449 businesses, which is the highest number of rated companies since the start of the CEI in 2002.

Huron’s ongoing recognition by the HRC Foundation underscores its deep commitment to fostering a culture of belonging and creating an environment where all employees can belong and thrive.
