Huron recognized 15th consecutive year for its culture of collaboration, innovation, and belonging

Wilson Perumal & Company, recently acquired by Huron, also honored in the Boutique Firm Category

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 15, 2025-- Global professional services firm Huron (NASDAQ: HURN) today announced it has once again been named a Best Firm to Work For by Consulting magazine. This year marks the fifteenth consecutive year Huron has earned this distinction, underscoring the company’s dedication and commitment to fostering an environment where employees feel valued, supported, and empowered to make an impact.

“Our recognition as a Best Firm to Work For is a direct reflection of the passion, collaboration, and commitment of our people,” said Mark Hussey, chief executive officer and president of Huron. “At the heart of Huron’s success is a people-first culture that fosters connection, belonging, collaboration, and forward thinking. Being ranked second among large firms is a testament to the strength of the culture our team has cultivated. We are equally proud that Wilson Perumal & Company, now part of the Huron team, has been recognized as well. We look forward to building on our strong cultural foundation together.”

Huron has built a culture where individuals feel empowered, respected, and supported in their personal and professional growth. This inclusive and entrepreneurial environment empowers team members to innovate, support one another, and create real value for clients. The firm invests in its employees through career development programs, mentorship, and opportunities to shape innovative solutions for clients across industries.

In addition, Wilson Perumal & Company, the strategy and operations consulting firm Huron recently acquired, was named to Consulting magazine’s 2025 Best Firms to Work For list in the Boutique Firm category. This recognition further reflects the shared values and strong cultures of both organizations, reinforcing the strength of the combined firms in creating exceptional experiences for employees and clients.

Consulting magazine’s annual survey measures employee satisfaction across culture, career development, client engagement, compensation and benefits, and firm leadership. Results are determined by survey responses from consultants across participating firms. Rankings were celebrated at the Best Firms to Work For awards dinner on Sept. 11, 2025.
