

Huron Named a 2026 Best Firm to Work For by Consulting Magazine for 16th Consecutive Year

September 22, 2026

Employee feedback recognizes Huron's culture of belonging, career growth, innovation, and leadership

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 22, 2026-- Global professional services firm Huron (NASDAQ: HURN) today announced it has been named one of Consulting Magazine's 2026 Best Firms to Work For, marking the 16th consecutive year the firm has received the recognition. The annual award honors consulting firms based on employee feedback about their workplace experience across areas including culture, career development, client engagement, compensation and benefits, leadership, and work-life balance.

"Being recognized as a Best Firm to Work For 16 years in a row is especially meaningful because this recognition reflects the experiences and voices of our people," said Mark Hussey, chief executive officer and president of Huron. "Their passion, curiosity, collaboration, and commitment to helping our clients solve complex challenges continue to shape our culture where our teams can grow, innovate, and make a meaningful impact."

Huron continues to invest in its people through leadership development, mentorship, career advancement opportunities and programs designed to foster an inclusive, high-performing workplace where employees can bring their authentic selves to work. These investments help employees grow and thrive while strengthening Huron's ability to deliver exceptional results for clients. The firm's collaborative culture encourages employees to embrace innovation, challenge conventional thinking, and work shoulder-to-shoulder with clients across industries to navigate complex business and operational challenges.

The recognition adds to a growing list of workplace and employer-brand honors earned by Huron in recent years, reflecting the firm's continued focus on delivering a positive employee experience, creating opportunities for employees to build their careers and contributing meaningful results for clients and communities.

Consulting Magazine's Best Firms to Work For recognition evaluates workplace experiences through comprehensive employee survey feedback across key categories, including culture, career development, client engagement, compensation and benefits, firm leadership, and work-life balance.
